

Antique Elbow Chair Large, Oak Ash Elm, Study Desk, Georgian Armchair Circa 1800

DESCRIPTION

Our Stock # 11.2730

This is an antique elbow chair. A large example in oak, ash and elm ideal as a study desk chair. A Georgian armchair dating to circa 1800.

- A superior antique chair presented in very good condition
- In oak, ash & elm with fine colour throughout
- Desirable design offering comfortable wide seating
- Complete with matching bolster cushion
- Professionally upholstered seat with quality soft textile
- Drop in seat design allows easy recovering if required
- Rising from cabriole leg with pad foot united by turned stretcher
- Attractive swept arms
- Generous 49cm (19.3") seat height
- Arch form back with carved header rail and shaped back splat
- Curve seat front over hand carved serpentine frieze

Search London Fine for #11.2730 , or scan the QR code for more photos and details

DIMENSIONS

Max Width: 70cm (27.5")
Max Depth: 53cm (20.75")
Max Height: 105cm (41.25")
Seat Width: 54cm (21.25")
Seat Depth: 49cm (19.25")

