

Antique Court Cupboard Georgian English Oak Sideboard Jacobean Taste Circa 1800

DESCRIPTION

Our Stock # 18.5043

This is an antique court cupboard, a late Georgian, English oak sideboard in the Jacobean taste dating to circa 1800.

- Deep, rich tones to the English oak
- Desirable aged patina in a wax polished finish
- Mid-sized and profusely decorated with carved foliate detail
- Cupboard doors dressed with external butterfly hinges and turned pulls
- Original iron locks in place with key absent
- Planked top overhangs foliate carved frieze
- A pair of stout cup and cover pillars to the front
- Behind, a pair of cupboards flanking central panel
- Arrangement repeated below in larger form offering abundant storage
- Standing upon turned legs to the front, square section to the back
- United by shaped, box stretcher at floor level

Search London Fine for #18.5043 , or scan the QR code for more photos and details

DIMENSIONS

Max Width: 117cm (46")

Max Depth: 40cm (15.75")

Max Height: 112cm (44")

