

Antique Campaign Silver Chest, English, Oak, Victorian Trunk, Heavy Circa 1852-5

DESCRIPTION

Our Stock # 18.5423

This is a superior quality, antique, campaign, silver chest, an English oak. An early Victorian trunk dating to the mid-19th century, circa 1852-5.

- A very pleasing original gold or silver chest presented in good antique condition
- Extremely heavy, iron bound inch and half stocks of English oak
- Fabulous 'through-dovetails' showing the wonderful oak craftsmanship
- Displaying grain interest and a rich, dark, consistent colour
- Hobbs & Co., brass lock with later Chubb brass lock, keys absent
- Brass corner plates, cabin handles and key hole escutcheons
- Iron carry handles to ends and lid holding up on original stays
- Inside lined with a quality, English green baize
- A pair of snugly fitting removable trays feature lifting handles
- Beneath offering voluminous storage

Search London Fine for #18.5423, or scan the QR code for more photos and details

DIMENSIONS

Max Width: 92cm (36.25")

Max Depth: 62cm (24.5")

Max Height: 79cm (31")

LIST PRICE

£2,650.00

