

Antique Steamer Chest, Marine, English Travel Ship's Trunk W Insall & Sons c1870

DESCRIPTION

Our Stock # 18.5403

This is an antique steamer chest of marine interest, an English travel or ship's trunk by the prestigious Bristol firm of W Insall & Sons. A camphorwood chest from the late 19th century, circa 1870.

- Robustly constructed in select camphorwood
- Attractive grain detail and a desirable aged patina
- Pleasing through dovetail joints
- Metal bound for strength in a thick gauge brass
- Working, brass lock, key for security
- Dressed with heavy duty, leather carry handles to either end
- Impressed with the maker's mark to the plates
- The stout lid raises on quality hinging
- The inside offering voluminous storage
- Featuring a baize lined, removable tray for convenience

Search London Fine for #18.5403, or scan the QR code for more photos and details

DIMENSIONS

Max Width: 71cm (28")

Max Depth: 50.5cm (20")

Max Height: 47.5cm (18.75")

