

Early Victorian Antique Writing Library Table, Mahogany, English c.1840

DESCRIPTION

Our Stock # 12.1588

This is an early Victorian antique writing, or library, table in well figured mahogany, English c.1840.

- Beautifully figured mahogany with a wax polished finish
- Well proportioned with a desirable aged patina and rounded front corners
- Pierced brass three quarter gallery and twin moulded edge detail to top
- Twin frieze drawers dressed with garland loop handles over pressed brass back plates
- Drawers cock beaded and mahogany lined with hand cut dovetail joints
- Lower lip moulding to frieze
- Raised on classically scrolled cabriole legs with some Regency influence
- Platforms united by an appealing, robust, turned stretcher
- Generous pierced stock risers with pinched waist

A highly appealing example with solid joints and construction. Delivered waxed, polished and ready for the home.
