

Antique Chest of Drawers, Manner of Sheraton, English, Georgian, Circa 1780

DESCRIPTION

Our Stock # 18.5747

This is a fine example of an antique chest of drawers in the manner of Sheraton, English from the late Georgian era circa 1780.

- In quality mahogany with attractive grain and good colour
- Useful shallow proportions arranged in a classic '2 over 3' configuration
- Raised on typical splayed, slender bracket feet with swagged apron
- Oak lined, cock beaded drawers solidly constructed with dovetailed joints
- Inset keyhole linings fronting working iron locks with key
- Dressed with the original drop handles over pressed brass back plates

A super antique chest of drawers, charming and useful, ideal in many locations due to its shallow depth. Solid joints and construction, delivered waxed, polished and ready for the home.
