

Antique Open Pedestal Desk, English, Edwardian, Knee-hole, Writing, Circa 1910

DESCRIPTION

Our Stock # 18.5683

This is an antique open pedestal desk, an English, Edwardian single pedestal, knee-hole writing table in mahogany dating to the early 20th century, circa 1910.

- Attractive caramel tones to the light mahogany
- Grain interest in a lustrous wax polished finish
- In good order throughout with a desirable aged patina
- Raised on slender, tapering, square section legs over brass castors
- Generous work surface at a comfortable height
- Later, inset triple tooled, gold highlighted writing surface
- Attractive crossbanded border and moulded edge detail
- Benefiting from a shaped up-stand to the rear
- Broad, over-knee, frieze drawer over bracketed knee hole
- Featuring a bank of four, graduated, crossbanded, mahogany lined drawers
- Drawers dressed with solid brass drop handles over shaped back plates

Search London Fine for #18.5683, or scan the QR code for more photos and details

DIMENSIONS

Max Width: 106.75cm (42")

Max Depth: 57cm (22.5")

Desk Height: 77.5cm (30.5")

Plus Up-stand: 7cm (2.75")

Knee Hole Width: 62cm (24.5")

Knee Hole Height: 63cm (24.75")

Find out more about Rexine here...

