

Antique Foot Stool, Mahogany, Damask Cloth, English, Victorian, Circa 1840

DESCRIPTION

Our Stock # 18.5735

This is an antique foot stool in mahogany finished with a quality damask cloth. An English stool dating to the early Victorian period of the early 19th century, circa 1840.

- Deep, warm tones to the mahogany frame
- Desirable colour and an aged patina
- In good order throughout, solid and stable
- Stuff-over seat pad, easily recovered to suit any décor
- Traditionally stuffed and well upholstered
- Attractive florally patterned lemon damask cloth
- Classical overtones to the beautiful carved frame
- Serpentine aprons run seamlessly into the legs
- Raised on four cabriole legs over scrolled feet
- Decorated with scrolls and foliate detail

Search London Fine for #18.5735 , or scan the QR code for more photos and details

DIMENSIONS

- Max Width: 64cm (25.25")
- Max Depth: 49cm (19.25")
- Max Height: 45cm (17.75")
- Seat Width: 58.5cm (23")
- Seat Depth: 44cm (17.25")
- Seat Height: 45cm (17.75")

