

Antique Sideboard / Dresser

DESCRIPTION

Our Stock # LFA-1039

This is an antique, European oak sideboard or dresser dating to the latter part of the 19th Century. The plinth base, raised on feet, supports the cupboard with twin, field panel doors decorated with delicate foliate carving and flanked by turned pilasters. Within the scroll moulded frieze between the upper and lower cupboards two drawers emerge with elaborate 'kissing fish' handles. The upper cupboard, complete with working locks and keys, is divided into three sections defined by four sets of twin turned columns sat on carved brackets. The central panel carving mirroring the lower cupboard doors. Glazed side display units open revealing that the central panel door swing allowing generous storage. The pediment carving provides capitals for the columns and unites and balances the form. A bold and wonderful piece with warmth and purpose. Superb quality and a stunning piece presented in good antique condition. Solid joints and construction. Delivered waxed & polished ready for the home.
