

Victorian Mahogany Drop Leaf Dining Table

DESCRIPTION

Our Stock # LFA-1227 This is an English, antique, drop leaf dining table dating to the mid-Victorian period c.1870. A stable and sturdy dining table made from generous stock of solid mahogany displaying good grain detail and patina in a warm russet hue. Rising on stout, square section legs with ring turned detailing, decorative, flame mahogany, shaped aprons at either end lift the piece above the ordinary. Fully configurable from a modest side table or intimate diner for two, the table extends to seat up to 8 with the twin arm supports ably carrying the weighty flaps for a stable and strong dining experience. Delivered waxed, polished and ready for the home.
