

Antique Telescope, English, Refractor, Dollond of London, circa 1820

DESCRIPTION

Our Stock # 18.6055

This is an antique two draw telescope. An English refractor for terrestrial or astronomical use by Dollond of London and dating to the early 19th century, circa 1820.

Perfect for bird watching, landscape appreciation, wildlife stalking, or maritime observation. Equally suitable for observing the night sky.

- Good optics presenting a clear, sharp performance
- Parallel, wooden primary barrel in good order
- Segmented first draw tube
- Draws with a firm action and focuses easily
- 25mm (1") achromatic objective
- Engraved, sliding dust cover to objective; reads 'Dollond, London'
- Flared eyecup with swivel cover
- Supplied with a London Fine oak and brass 'Captain's Stand' for display

This is a charming Dollond telescope, and as good to use today as it was two hundred years ago.
