Antique Wardrobe, Howard and Sons, London, Oak, Linen Cupboard, Compactum C.1900

DESCRIPTION

Our Stock # 18.6079
This is an antique wardrobe by Howard and Sons of London. An English, oak linen cupboard, or compactum, dating to the late 19th century, circa 1900.

- Crafted in select oak displaying rich biscuit hues with consistent tone
- Grain interest throughout with a desirable aged patina
- Wisps of medullary rays highlighted by the wax polished finish
- From the sought after cabinet maker, Howard and Sons, Berners St., London
- Of good proportion, the design accentuated with subtle tramline decoration
- Hanging cupboard opposite a garment cupboard, over three graduated drawers, over full-width jumper drawer
- The doors dressed with brass lock escutcheons and drop handles, key absent
- A modest crown moulding and continuous plinth base framing the cabinet beautifully
- The single-width hanging cupboard enclosed by a door featuring the original, quality mirror plate
- A suite of brass hooks dress the wardrobe compartment making the most of the hanging space
- The smaller cupboard door with domed top and boarded field panel
