

Antique Birdcage Elbow Chair, English, Painted, Leather, Regency, Circa 1820

DESCRIPTION

Our Stock # 18.6136

This is an antique 'birdcage' elbow chair. A rare, English, painted, leather seat carver, dating to the Regency period of the early 19th century, circa 1820.

- Highly desirable and rare elbow chair
- Blue painted finish beautifully patinated, commensurate with age
- Quality, drop-in, traditionally stuffed blue leather seat pad
- Elegant Regency period craftsmanship and excellent proportion
- Fascinating 'birdcage' style back splat and elbows
- Leg and seat-rail union dressed with pierced, golden shaped brackets
- Standing upon four square section legs with gently swept rear legs

This is a delightful antique 'birdcage' elbow chair, a fine example of Regency furniture and sure to enhance any room. Solid joints and construction, delivered waxed, polished and ready for the home.
