Pair of Vintage Hexagonal Spice Jars, Oriental, Ceramic, Baluster, Urn, Avian

DESCRIPTION

Our Stock # 18.6145
This is a pair of vintage hexagonal spice jars. Two Oriental, ceramic baluster urns with decorative avian and foliate scenes, dating to the mid-20th century, circa 1950.

- Hexagonal form with profuse decoration
- Displaying a desirable aged patina
- Ceramic and glaze in good order - commensurate with age
- Domed lid with rich golden finial and gilt, rolled edge
- Painted birds presented upon a white background with foliate detail
- Contrasting panels of green vines and blue flowers against a distinctive capsicum red

- Vase neck decorated with a continuous band of blue foliate wreath
- Blossom flower and bugle horn maker's marks feature upon the base

This is a delightful pair of vintage spice jars, sure to add real appeal as decorative or practical pieces. Delivered polished and ready for the home.
