

Georgian Revival Marble Fireplace, English, Fire Surround, Dominic Hurley

DESCRIPTION

Our Stock # 18.6254

This is a Georgian revival marble fireplace. An English, fire surround with mantelpiece in the classical taste by Dominic Hurley, dating to the late 20th century, circa 1980.

- A fireplace of exacting proportion displaying Palladian overtones
- In the finest stone by the hand of this sought-after master-craftsman
- Carrara statuary marble ground with Broccatello di Siena marble frieze
- By the renowned, Devonshire sculptural artist Dominic Hurley
- Mantel crown with impressive dentil cornice
- Decorative pilasters with scrolled detail to each side
- Secondary crown with continuous foliate ribband
- Fire surround decorated with acanthus to each corner over a beaded relief
- Arresting ram's head centrepiece hewn from a single marble block
- The spectacular result of many hundreds of hours of painstaking craftsmanship
- Attention to detail from the figured horn to the wisps of fur

Search London Fine for #18.6254 , or scan the QR code for more photos and details

DIMENSIONS

Max Width: 190cm (74.75")
 Max Depth: 23cm (9")
 Max Height: 137cm (54")
 Fire Surround Width: 108cm (42.5")
 Fire Surround Depth: 14.5cm (5.75")
 Fire Surround Height: 97cm (38.25")

Find out more about Dominic Hurley here...

LIST PRICE

£40,000.00

