This is a large, classic maritime oil painting by the renowned marine and equine artist David Chambers. 'Close Quarters' is an original, oil on board painting from David's recent collection.

Two small sailing ships appear to race headlong into a brewing storm, in close proximity to each other. The foremost ship is heeling close to the choppy sea, adding a dynamic nature to the scene. The golden tones of the sails sit nicely against the cool grey storm clouds gathering overhead. The sea is beginning to churn into a chop, revealing the light aqua blues typical of David's seascapes.

Worldwide, David's work provides collectors with excellent investment potential. His mastery of the subject dictates that the classic 'Turneresque' nature of his craft will be sought-after for generations to come. Each painting is signed by the artist for authenticity.

We can supply David's paintings with a choice of attractive frame styles, or in its natural state for your personal preference.
