

Vintage Pair of Binoculars, German, 12x Magnification, Busch Prisma Terlux

DESCRIPTION

Our Stock # 18.6374

This is a vintage pair of binoculars. A German, brass 12x magnification Busch Prisma Terlux, dating to the early 20th century, circa 1930.

- Appealing vintage binoculars with generous magnification
- Displaying a desirable aged patina - optical elements in clear order
- Painted brass with weathering commensurate with age
- Complete with leather carry case and strap
- Left barrel presents the Busch Prisma-Binocle engraving, with Mod Terlux to the right-hand side
- Central adjustment wheel situated on a spindle between bridge joints
- Smaller central adjustment dial displays markings for the magnification level of 12x
- Engraved serial number of 68376 on the top bridge plate
- Front element measuring 35mm (1.5") with sliding sunshade
- Flared eye-cups with rotary mechanical adjustment
- Barrels finished with quality dark brown leather

Search London Fine for #18.6374 , or scan the QR code for more photos and details

DIMENSIONS

Max Width: 12.5cm (5")
Max Depth: 20cm (7.75")
Max Height: 4.5cm (1.75")
Pouch Width: 15cm (6")
Pouch Depth: 8.5cm (3.25")
Pouch Height: 21.5cm (8.5")

