This is a balloon festival landscape oil painting by the renowned marine and equine artist David Chambers. 'Festival Skyline' is an original, oil on board painting from David's recent collection.

Setting the scene high above the Avon gorge, this wonderful landscape presents two icons of Bristol - the Clifton Suspension Bridge and the balloon festival. Brunel's world famous bridge is the perfect setting for capturing a festival that has enchanted crowds since its inception in 1979.

Rich primary and secondary hues decorate the gathered hot air balloons as they soar majestically past the eye-catching feat of engineering. Clifton below is captured in early morning summer tones, whilst the pale blue sky shows the idyllic August dawn light wonderfully.

Unique amongst David's catalogue, this painting also features a moorland landscape scene to the reverse. A craggy tor rests beneath a setting sun, whose afterglow is casting an amber glow upon the edge of the gathering clouds.

Worldwide, David's work provides collectors with excellent investment potential. His mastery of the subject dictates that the classic 'Turneresque' nature of his craft will be sought-after for gen ...
