This is a maritime landscape oil painting by the renowned marine and equine artist David Chambers. 'Spirit of the Thames' is an original, oil on board painting from David's recent collection.

A grand merchant ship makes its way at some pace past the regal sight of St Paul's Cathedral in London. An early morning light emanates from behind with light amber hues, whilst the amassed ships moored below are in a sombre palette of russet colours. The main vessel is being followed closely by another, offering the chance to interpret the scene. Are these two vessels racing each other for sport, or to a bountiful catch up the river? The river is churned up by the strong crosswinds, evidenced by the billowing sails and licks of white spray against the hulls.

Worldwide, David's work provides collectors with excellent investment potential. His mastery of the subject dictates that the classic 'Turneresque' nature of his craft will be sought-after for generations to come. Each painting is signed by the artist for authenticity.
