

Antique Master Shipwright's Chest, English, Mahogany, Tool Trunk, Victorian

DESCRIPTION

Our Stock # 18.6607

This is an antique master shipwright's chest. An English, mahogany lined tool trunk, dating to the Victorian period, circa 1880.

- Superb Victorian chest with hidden depths
- Displays a desirable aged patina
- Mahogany lined and showing fine grain interest
- Substantial, quality proportions with an ebonised finish to the exterior
- Lid opens upon a trio of internal hinges
- Dressed with a brass, working lock escutcheon — key present
- Brass engraved plaque with the name of A.G. Leslie
- A pair of stout rope handles with turkshead knots sit within large keepers
- Mahogany lined interior is a key highlight with elegant boxwood cross banded inlay
- 19 opening drawers within a pair of removable consoles
- Pair of hidden lockers at the base accessed by sliding covers

Search London Fine for #18.6607, or scan the QR code for more photos and details

DIMENSIONS

Max Width: 111.5cm (44")

Max Depth: 70.5cm (27.75")

Max Height: 66.5cm (26.25")

