

Antique Etagere, Italian, Mahogany, Boxwood, 3 Tier Whatnot, Victorian, C.1900

DESCRIPTION

Our Stock # 18.6620

This is an antique etagere. An Italian, ebonised mahogany and boxwood three tier whatnot, dating to the Victorian period, circa 1900.

- Superb Italian craftsmanship
- Displays a desirable aged patina
- Ebonised mahogany with deep consistent hues throughout
- Three tier design for added versatility
- The eye-catching raised, pierced brass gallery sets the etagere off
 - Shaped upper tier benefits from quality boxwood marquetry – repeated on the lower tiers
- Further marquetry decorates each fascia for 360-degree, central room placement
- Opening drawer to the front dressed with an ornate brass handle with broad leaf motif
- Lower tier features a sinuous bowed knee
- Raised upon gently curving legs with splayed feet

Search London Fine for #18.6620, or scan the QR code for more photos and details

DIMENSIONS

Max Width: 52.5cm (20.75")

Max Depth: 35cm (13.75")

Max Height: 86cm (33.75")

