

Vintage Drawing Instrument Set, English, Drafting Compass Compendium, Circa 1930

DESCRIPTION

Our Stock # 18.6614

This is a vintage drawing instrument set. An English, bone and cast metal drafting compass compendium with engraving, dating to the early 20th century, circa 1930.

- Wonderfully personalised drawing set
- Displays a desirable aged patina
- Cast metal shows bright finish throughout
- Bone handles and a pair of impressive rules
- Mahogany carry case with fine grain interest
- Interior finished with rich blue velour
- Dressed with an inset brass lock — key absent
- Comprehensive set of drafting tools including compass
- Engraved to lid with E.A. Ommanney R.N
- Likely to be for Erasmus Austin Ommanney, commander in the Royal Navy
- Further engraved throughout with the initials EAO

Search London Fine for #18.6614, or scan the QR code for more photos and details

DIMENSIONS

Max Width: 19cm (7.5")

Max Depth: 12cm (4.75")

Max Height: 4.5cm (1.75")

