

Antique Master Shipwright's Chest, English, Mahogany, Tool Trunk, Victorian

DESCRIPTION

Our Stock # 18.6600

This is an antique master shipwright's chest. An English, ebonised mahogany tool trunk with ornate interior, dating to the Victorian period, circa 1880.

- Wonderful craftsman's piece with hidden depths
- Displays a desirable aged patina
- Ebonised mahogany with dark, consistent hues throughout
- The polished mahogany interior is a true delight
- Stout, braced lid opens with a central recessed pull in brass
- Eye-catching lid interior with vaulted field panel bearing a Star of David motif
- Trunk fascias finished with the four suits in contrasting lighter inlays
- Four opening compartments on pairs of brass hinges
- Compartments comprise of six individual pieces and are fully removable
- Unusual sliding bottom shelf reveals hidden storage space beneath
- Broad dovetail joints and brass dressed corners for strength

Search London Fine for #18.6600, or scan the QR code for more photos and details

DIMENSIONS

Max Width: 91cm (35.75")

Max Depth: 50cm (19.75")

Max Height: 53.5cm (21")

LIST PRICE

£3,650.00

