Large, Antique Refectory Table, Scottish, 8 Seat, Oak, Dining, Victorian, C.1870

DESCRIPTION

Our Stock # 18.6815
This is a large antique refectory table. A Scottish, 8-seat oak dining table, dating to the Victorian period, circa 1870.

- Superb Scottish oak draws the eye
- Displaying a desirable aged patina
- Select oak stocks with fine grain interest
- Copious medullary rays shine through the wax polish finish
- Generously sized table surface with a trio of panels inset within a broad border
- The square section apron set within broad shoulders
- Raised upon tapering, turned legs decorated with carved rings
- United by a long H-stretcher for extra strength and standing on bun feet

This is a large antique refectory table with comfortable seating for 8 and striking Scottish oak grain interest. Set to dazzle at a dinner party or for the family gathering, this table will delight. Solid joints and construction, delivered waxed, polished and ready for the home.
