

Victorian Pie Crust Coffee Table, c.1900

DESCRIPTION

Our Stock # LFA-1284 This is an antique, Victorian, pie crust table dating to c.1900. The well figured, quarter veneered, flame mahogany displays a deep and lustrous sheen in tones of russet browns. The top sits within a bold, 'pie crust' gallery and provides a stable platform ideal for serving tea or coffee. Raised on classic cabriole legs terminating in pad feet, the knees are shaped with carved scroll detail and foliate pendant beneath a plain apron. The classic proportions, deep tones, lustrous finish and authentic patina of this piece all add up to make this modest little table a cut above the norm. Solid joints and a desirable finish, delivered waxed, polished and ready for the home.
