

Antique Coffer, English Oak Joined Chest, Queen Anne Circa 1700

DESCRIPTION

Our Stock # 11.3470

This is a carved antique coffer, an English oak joined chest dating to the Queen Anne period c.1700.

- Glorious colour and desirable aged patina
- Vigorously carved geometric decoration to the front panels
- Foliate frieze to carved upper rail
- Classic three panel front, mirrored at the lid
- Fluted & amp; chamfered muntins and stiles
- Field panel rear showing provincial hand-hewn chamfers
- Top lifts on desirable original splayed wire hinging
- Riding on later squat bun feet
- \bullet Voluminous storage within and a candle box to one end \cdot this usefully supporting the lid when in the open position
 - Iron lock & amp; clasp key absent
 - Solid joints and construction

Search $\underline{\text{London Fine for } \#11.3470}$, or scan the QR code for more photos and details

DIMENSIONS

Max Width: 119cm (46.75") Max Depth: 54cm (21.25") Max Height: 59cm (23.25")

