

Edwardian Four Fold Walnut Screen, c.1910

DESCRIPTION

Our Stock # LFA-1319 This is an antique, Edwardian four fold screen dating to c.1910. The generous and well made walnut frame offers weight and stability to this four fold screen that can be used as a photographer's prop, wall panel, room divide or screen. Featuring moulded edge detail around the Jaquard, cream fabric panels this screen is finished both sides, ideal for centre room placement if required. The triple bronze hinging set over leather modesty trim to each joint is a sign of quality and attention to detail. The lower field panels display good grain detail and bring balance to the proportions and design. A super example, delivered waxed, polished and ready for the home.
