Antique Charles II Revival Dresser, English, Oak, Sideboard, Victorian C.1880

DESCRIPTION

Our Stock # 18.6766
This is an antique Charles II revival dresser. An English, Victorian, dark oak sideboard dating to the late 19th century, circa 1880.

- Mid-sized, impressive piece
- Displays a desirable aged patina
- Dark stained oak radiates highlights from the profusely carved stocks
- Striking Charles II restoration revival taste offers overt detail
- Tiered, crown moulded surmount sits above the whole
- Tall back-rest featuring carved foliate panels, the centrepiece with dome top shape
- Four gallery shelves feature barley twist supporting columns
- Generous sideboard with a width and depth of 101cm and 48cm respectively (39.75" & 19")
- Dresser base continues the heavily carved appearance
- Pair of field panel doors with ball flower carvings — keys present but locks inoperable
- Raised on carved baluster legs and united by a low display shelf
