Antique Gentleman's Correspondence Box, Campaign, Travel Case, Regency, C.1820

DESCRIPTION

Our Stock # 18.7016
This is an antique gentleman's correspondence box. An English, Rosewood and mother of pearl inlaid campaign or travel case, dating to the Regency period, circa 1820.

- Exquisite example of a Regency campaign case
- Displaying a desirable aged patina
- Striking Rosewood stocks show fine grain interest
- The rich russet hues present the inlaid mother of pearl beautifully
- Tall, sarcophagus shape with domed lid
- Lid opens smoothly at turn of key, in turn offering access to the panel doors
- Arranged as a suite of three drawers with a fourth faux panel
- Each finished with charming inlay of circular motif and wooden pulls
- Arresting cobalt blue interior lining with letter sleeve to lid
- Jewellery trays with five fabric lids for added storage in the field
- Fold-out writing slope to lowest drawer front with small glass ink well
