

Ornate Antique Tea Caddy, English, Rosewood, Sarcophagus, Chest, Regency, C.1820

DESCRIPTION

Our Stock # 18.7017

This is an ornate antique tea caddy. An English, Rosewood sarcophagus chest with Mother of Pearl inlay, dating to the Regency period, circa 1820.

- Make tea drinking an event with this beautiful caddy
- Displays a desirable aged patina
- Superb grain interest to the select Rosewood
- Deep caramel hues beam beneath the wax polish finish
- Foliate Mother of Pearl inlay graces the lid and front fascia
- The dome top lid secured by an inlaid, working lock — key present with dashing tassel

tassel

- Upon opening, the roused velvet lining in rich scarlet catches the eye
- Arranged as a pair of caddies with mixing glass to the centre
- Each Rosewood caddy with Mother of Pearl inlay to lid
- Infuse your favourite teas within the quality mixing glass
- Complete with a striking mixing spoon fashioned from Mother of Pearl

Search London Fine for #18.7017, or scan the QR code for more photos and details

DIMENSIONS

Max Width: 35.5cm (14")
 Max Depth: 19.5cm (7.75")
 Max Height: 21cm (8.25")
 Tea Box Width: 8cm (3.25")
 Tea Box Depth: 13cm (5")
 Tea Box Height: 13.5cm (5.25")
 Glass Diameter: 9cm (3.5")

