

Antique Gentleman's Triple Wardrobe, English, Mahogany, Cabinet, Victorian, 1880

DESCRIPTION

Our Stock # 18.7114

This is an antique gentleman's triple wardrobe. An English, mahogany and satinwood inlaid cabinet, dating to the Victorian period, circa 1880.

- Utterly striking craftsmanship upon a generously sized piece
- Displaying a desirable aged patina and remarkably immaculate interiors
- Select mahogany further enhanced with flame mahogany panels offering superb grain interest
- Satinwood inlaid decoration and borders an exquisite appointment
- Arranged as a central panelled cupboard over an open compartment, suite of drawers below
- To each side, quality, bevelled mirror plates within tall cupboard doors - desirable light foxing present
- Two short over three long graduated drawers - solid mahogany drawer boxes with slim dovetail joints
- Interiors of distinction, presenting a level of cleanliness almost beyond superlatives for an antique piece
- Dashing tiered crown moulding with flame mahogany panel and ebonised Greek key decoration

- Dressed with ornate, cast gilt metal handles and inset working locks — key present
- Flared drawers with satinwood inlays over flame, with oval mahogany leather embellishments

DIMENSIONS

Max Width: 199cm (78.25")
 Max Depth: 60.5cm (23.75")
 Max Height: 215cm (84.75")
 Dresser Width: 67cm (26.5")
 Dresser Depth: 49cm (19.25")
 Dresser Height: 23cm (9")

