DESCRIPTION

Our Stock # 18.7110
This is a large vintage Bakhtiari carpet. A Persian, woven hall or living room rug, dating to the mid 20th century, circa 1950.

- Enliven any space with superb vibrancy
- Displaying a desirable aged patina - minimal underfoot wear upon closer inspection
- Comfortable, quality pile with pleasing feel underfoot
- Generously sized to suit a grand reception hall or large living room
- Bright vermillion ground draws the eye to the central medallion
- Large blue central shield with flower head rosettes
- Cream stylised corners with bouquets of flowers, united by a small secondary border
- Wide blue tramline border decorated with further flower patterns

This is a beautiful vintage Bakhtiari carpet associated with Western Persia and finished with supremely vibrant dyed weave. Eye-catching and comfortable, this carpet is delivered ready for the home.
