

Vintage Rug, Woven, Wool, Carpet, Hall, Lounge

DESCRIPTION

Our Stock # 18.7129

This is a quality vintage Tabriz rug. A North-west Persian, woven wool carpet ideal for the entrance hall or lounge, dating to the late 20th century, circa 1980.

- Of versatile Dozar size at 144cm (56.75") x 248cm (97.75")
- Displaying a desirable aged patina - one small area to benefit from cleaning
- Vibrant red centrepiece a shock of crimson dyed wool
- Tightly woven, soft pile offers a comfortable underfoot feel
- Elaborate medallion with dark blue and cream ground, issuing brightly coloured flowers
- A dashing melange of foliate imagery decorates the main panel
- Broad tramline borders with alternating mid and dark blue ground, issuing further foliate motif
- The reverse dressed with leather bound edges and short, loose tassels to both ends

This is a charming vintage Tabriz rug, with great colour and bountiful detail. Delivered ready to be enjoyed in the entrance hall or living room.

Search London Fine for #18.7129, or scan the QR code for more photos and details

DIMENSIONS

Max Width: 144cm (56.75")

Max Depth: 1cm (.5")

Max Height: 248cm (97.75")

LIST PRICE

£4,250.00

