Large Antique Sideboard, English, Oak, Mirror, Cabinet, Arts & Crafts, Victorian

DESCRIPTION

Our Stock # 18.7308
This is a large antique sideboard. An English, oak mirror back cabinet, dating to the Arts & Crafts movement during the late Victorian period, circa 1900.

- Imperious proportion with elegant craftsmanship
- Displays a desirable aged patina and presented in fine order
- Select oak shows fine grain interest and wisps of medullary rays
- Beautiful caramel hues beam beneath a wax polish finish
- Striking arched pediment standing over the whole with scrolled detail
- Galleried upper with tapering columns framing the trio of mirrors
- Wonderfully bevelled mirror plates with a desirable light foxing
- Useful sideboard with serpentine, shaped display shelf above
- Pair of drawers dressed with brass drop handles over shaped backplates
- Carved field panel doors with pleasingly jovial Oriental fish motif
- Each drawer finished with tall lock escutcheons with inset working locks — key present
