

Antique Armchair, French, Beech Lounge, Tub, Seat, Late Victorian, Circa 1900

DESCRIPTION

Our Stock # 18.7318

This is an antique armchair. A French, upholstered beech lounge or tub seat, dating to the late Victorian period, circa 1900.

• Lasting French elegance for the relaxed living room

• Displays a desirable aged patina - can be enjoyed as is or recovered to personal taste

- Quality upholstery shows minimal signs of gentle wear commensurate with age
- Solid beech frame offers a warm gilt finish
- The low back with high arms offers an inviting profile
- Deeply stuffed cushion with traditional feather filling
- Broad scroll arms with pleated detail and piping
- Attractive pink brocade trim adds further detail to the whole
- Dashing lower rail with serpentine forms and plume of feathers shield motif to centre
 - Raised upon four short cabriole legs with pronounced scrolled toes

• Companion pieces 18.7317 and 18.7319 also available and fine candidates for reupholstering to taste

Searcn London Fine for #18.7318 , or scan the QK code for more photos and details

London Fine Ltd The Antique Village The Old Whiteways Cider Factory Hele, Devon, EX5 4PW

DIMENSIONS

Max Width: 96cm (37.75") Max Depth: 92cm (36.25") Max Height: 81.5cm (32") Seat Width: 41cm (16.25") Seat Depth: 55.5cm (21.75") Seat Height: 46cm (18")

