

Antique Hallway Stand, English, Mahogany, Cane, Umbrella Rack, Edwardian, C.1910

DESCRIPTION

Our Stock # 18.7375

This is an antique hallway stand. An English, mahogany reception cane or umbrella rack, dating to the Edwardian period, circa 1910.

- As practical today as it was over a hundred years ago
- Displaying a desirable aged patina and in good order
- Dark stained mahogany shows deep russet hues
- Presented with a quality, wax polish finish
- Each corner dressed with a wooden spherical finial over square shoulders
- Ring turned supports united by stretchers to upper, arranged as a trio of openings
  - Full-width, removable cast iron drip tray to base, with good, consistent graphite finish
- Raised upon a quartet of decorated and tapering peg feet

This is a charming antique hallway stand, with deep polished finish and useful for wet umbrellas with its removable drip tray. Solid joints and construction, delivered waxed, polished and ready for the reception hall.
