

Antique Bachelor's Chest of Drawers, English, Flame Mahogany, Georgian, C.1780

DESCRIPTION

Our Stock # 18.7294

This is an antique bachelor's chest of drawers. An English, flame mahogany gentleman's cabinet, dating to the Georgian period, circa 1780.

- Striking antique chest of drawers with appealing figuring
- Displays a desirable aged patina
- Dashing flame mahogany shows fine grain interest
- Deep caramel hues beam beneath the wax polish finish
- Arranged as a suite of four drawers with dressing slide above
- Each drawer dressed with brass drop handles over ornate foliate backs
- Traditional cockbeading adds further detail to the drawer fronts
- Quality oak drawer boxes with inset, brass-lined locks to each – key absent
- The generously sized dressing slide opens smoothly by way of two small circular pulls
- Shallow front apron sits prominently above a pair of ogee bracket feet
- Raised to rear upon shaped bracket feet

Search London Fine for #18.7294 , or scan the QR code for more photos and details

DIMENSIONS

- Max Width: 95cm (37.5")
- Max Depth: 49.5cm (19.5")
- Max Height: 84.5cm (33.25")
- Dressing Slide Width: 87cm (34.25")
- Dressing Slide Depth: 30cm (11.75")
- Dressing Slide Height: 81cm (32")

LIST PRICE

£2,950.00

