

Tall Antique Room Divider, English, Velvet, Boudoir, Privacy Screen, Edwardian

DESCRIPTION

Our Stock # 18.7525

This is a tall antique room divider. An English, velvet boudoir or privacy screen, dating to the Edwardian period, circa 1910.

- Dashing and inviting screen of generous proportion for the larger room
- Displaying a desirable aged patina and in good order
- Rich in colour, the warm claret hues draw the eye to the serpentine form
- Four-panel design folds outwards smoothly upon brass hinges
- Dressed with scarlet trim to the stout panel edges

This is a delightful antique room divider, with tall panels and unfolding into room divider or headboard scale. The rich colour lends itself to the intimate boudoir with Edwardian panache, whilst the tactile velvet will add warm texture to any room. Delivered ready to use.
