Pair Of Antique Hall Seats, English, Pine, Reception, Conservatory, Victorian

DESCRIPTION

Our Stock # 18.7537
This is a pair of antique hall seats. An English, pine reception or conservatory chair, dating to the late Victorian period, circa 1900.

- Spend quality time relaxing with this comfortable pair of seats
- Displaying a desirable aged patina and in good order throughout
- Select Victorian pine shows fine grain interest and traditional pegged stocks
- Invitingly warm caramel hues presented beneath a quality wax polish finish
- Bold carved stiles present an eye-catching profile with deeply winged form
- Comfortable dished seats of generous proportion at widths of 58.5cm (23") and 57cm (22.5")
- Lower foot rests useful as a shoe rack - ideal for the hallway

This is a superb pair of antique hall seats, with graceful form and fine colour. Solid joints and construction, delivered waxed, polished and ready for the home.
