Antique Artist's Stool, English, Beech, Ash, Saddle Seat, Victorian, Circa 1900

DESCRIPTION

Our Stock # 18.7550
This is an antique artist's stool. An English, beech saddle seat, dating to the late Victorian period, circa 1900.

- Of useful, classic form with appealing craftsmanship
- Displays a desirable aged patina throughout
- Beech seat shows fine grain interest beneath a wax polish finish
- The legs in ash, matching the deep caramel hues to the saddle
- Comfortable seat in the classic saddle form shows wonderful gentle ageing
- Raised upon a quartet of turned legs, splayed and united by twin stretchers

This is a delightful antique artists's stool with a fascinating saddle slab seat and enduring appeal. Solid joints and construction, delivered waxed, polished and ready for the studio.
