

Victorian Antique Settee, Rosewood, English, 3 Seater Sofa Circa 1850

DESCRIPTION

Our Stock # 11.3499

This is a Victorian antique settee on a rosewood frame, an English 19th century sofa dating to circa 1850.

- A sumptuous piece of Victorian elegance
- Dark rosewood frame with good colour and desirable aged patina
- Broad, comfortable seat with supportive high back panel
- Raised on cabriole legs all round; Four to the front
- Carved shell detail to the knee and scrolled foot
- Three-quarter serpentine seat rail runs sinuously around
- Seat panel well sprung and in good order
 - Professionally re-upholstered some time ago in a damask cloth reminiscent of William Morris
- Traditionally stuffed and set off with a studded finish
- Beautifully formed, oblique, carved arms complete with padded armrests
- Rising into the shaped back panel with humped cresting rail

Search London Fine for #11.3499 , or scan the QR code for more photos and details

DIMENSIONS

- Max Width: 178cm (70")
- Max Depth: 84cm (33")
- Max Height: 107cm (42.25")
- Seat Width: 160cm (63")
- Seat Depth: 56cm (22")
- Seat Height: 34cm (13.5")

