

Large 8 Seat Antique Library Table, Mahogany, Boardroom, Dining, Victorian, 1850

DESCRIPTION

Our Stock # 18.7747

This is a large antique library table. An English, mahogany boardroom or dining table with demi-lune ends, dating to the Victorian period, circa 1850.

- Exceptional table of grand 10' proportion and finish fit for the boardroom or dining room
- Displaying a desirable aged patina and in good order
- Select mahogany presents wonderful russet hues and fine grain interest
- Later, inset Rexine top shows pleasing red colours and a tactile feel
- Striking demi-lune ends with long sides ideal for seating eight dinner guests
- Tiered rolled edge sits above a deep, box apron over a kneeheight of 60.5cm (23.75")
- Turned legs with carved bulb over a striking reeded gadrooned section of tapering form
- Each corner riding smoothly upon brass and ceramic castors

Search London Fine for #18.7747, or scan the QR code for more photos and details

DIMENSIONS

Max Width: 312cm (122.75")
 Max Depth: 120cm (47.25")
 Max Height: 80cm (31.5")
 Kneeheight: 60.5cm (23.75")
 Skiver Width: 292cm (115")
 Skiver Depth: 101.5cm (40")

LIST PRICE

£6,850.00

