

Antique Wall Mounted Cabinet, English, Mahogany, Hanging Whatnot, Victorian

DESCRIPTION

Our Stock # 18.7711

This is an antique wall-mounted cabinet. An English, mahogany hanging whatnot, dating to the Victorian period, circa 1880.

- Delightfully presented cabinet with fine craftsmanship
- Displays a desirable aged patina in good order
- Select mahogany shows fine grain interest
- Rich caramel hues radiate beneath a wax polish finish
- Shaped upper gallery with double bow back stand
- Serpentine carving to sides flourish into a pair of small finials
- Generous middle gallery provides display potential to the whole
- Behind a pair of field cabinet doors resides a shelf interior - inset lock, key absent
- Attractive doors a dashing arrangement of chevron panels
- Drop pendant finials sit pleasantly beneath the whole
- Dressed to the rear with a pair of brass wall mounting brackets

Search London Fine for #18.7711 , or scan the QR code for more photos and details

DIMENSIONS

Max Width: 58.5cm (23")

Max Depth: 17.5cm (7")

Max Height: 90.5cm (35.75")

