

Antique Decorative Fruit Bowl, English, Ceramic, Lustre, Serving Dish, C.1920

DESCRIPTION

Our Stock # 18.7805

This is an antique decorative fruit bowl. An English, ceramic and lustre finish serving dish, dating to the early 20th century, circa 1920.

- Striking colour and distinctive Carlton Ware Persian pattern appeal
- Displays a desirable aged patina and free of marks
- Rich cobalt blue ground accentuated with colourful lustre finish
- Golden foliate patterns decorate the rim and inner edge
- Bowl centre adorned with a traditional Persian temple scene
- Tall palms and a fruiting tree stand proudly above a nobleman and his courtiers
- Maker's marks to base for Wiltshaw & Robinson, of Stoke-on-Trent
- Further identified with a golden Persian pattern mark and serial number of 2884

This is a charming antique decorative fruit bowl, captivating in its rich colour and lustre finish. Delivered polished and ready to use as a centrepiece.

Search London Fine for #18.7805, or scan the QR code for more photos and details

DIMENSIONS

Max Width: 23cm (9")

Max Depth: 23cm (9")

Max Height: 10cm (4")

