

Large Vintage Partner's Desk, Oriental, Bamboo, Pedestal, Writing, Circa 1960

DESCRIPTION

Our Stock # 18.7881

This is a large vintage partner's desk. An Oriental, applied bamboo pedestal writing desk, dating to the mid 20th century, circa 1960.

- Profusely detailed and striking in its appearance
- Displays a desirable aged patina
- Surfaced applied bamboo vigourously patterned with cross hatch detail
- Rich caramel hues beam beneath a wax polish finish
- 'Pagoda' ends add a distinctive touch to the wide, deep top
- Four useful drawers inset from the main pedestal - two per side
- Unusual arrangement with cabinet doors to one side and suite of drawers on the reverse
- Brass fittings dress each opening, with shaped loop handle to drawers
- Cabinet doors with dashing bracket hinges create an oval motif
- Useful shelf to each cabinet, doors held with sliding latches
- The whole raised upon a continuous plinth foot to each pedestal

Search London Fine for #18.7881 , or scan the QR code for more photos and details

DIMENSIONS

Max Width: 170cm (67")
 Max Depth: 89cm (35")
 Max Height: 80cm (31.5")
 Kneehole Width: 57cm (22.5")
 Kneehole Depth: 89cm (35")
 Kneehole Height: 72cm (28.25")

