Antique Folding Coaching Table, Welsh, Occasional, Games, Garden, Victorian

DESCRIPTION

Our Stock # 18.7886
This is an antique folding coaching table. A Welsh, stained mahogany occasional games or outdoor table, dating to the late Victorian period, circa 1890.

- Fascinating fold mechanism with articulated base
- Displays a desirable aged patina throughout
- Select stocks with dark stain show fine grain interest
- Deep russet hues beam beneath a wax polish finish
- Two demi-lune leaves fold upwards from the centre line with bright brass hinges
- Rotating arm to underside swivels into rest for a stable top
- Folding X-frame legs with turned finish act as a secondary pivot for the folding mechanism
- Maker's mark to rear reads 'Thornton & Herne, 13 little Cadogan Place. Pont Street SW'

This is a charming antique folding coaching table, with Welsh craftsmanship from the late Victorian period. Ideal for use indoors as an occasional or card table, it could also find use within a garden setting. Solid joints and construction, delivered waxed, polished and ready for the home.
