

Large Antique Silver Chest, Scottish, Oak, Iron, Heavy Trunk, Victorian, C.1880

DESCRIPTION

Our Stock # 18.7193

This is a large antique silver chest. A Scottish, oak and iron bound heavy trunk, dating to the Victorian period, circa 1880.

- Appealing late Victorian chest with superior proportion
- Displays a desirable aged patina and wonderfully clean interior
- Oak shows fine grain interest and wisps of medullary rays
- Graced with deep caramel and russet hues throughout
- Stout lid heavily strapped with iron brace and bound corners
- Bound to shoulders by four iron plates for supreme strength
- Substantial drop handles mounted to shaped backplates
- Engraved brass plaque for a Mr John Dalziel W.S of Edinburgh
- Rides upon a set of four brass castors

This is a superb antique silver chest or coffer, of generous proportion and attractive appearance. Fantastic piece of storage furniture or coffee table. Solid joints and construction, delivered waxed, polished and ready for the home.
