

Chinese Antique Side Table, Rosewood And Marble, British Empire Exhibition 1924

DESCRIPTION

Our Stock # 10.1811

This is a Chinese antique side table in rosewood and marble from the British Empire Exhibition of 1924.

- Good colour in the solid rosewood and marble
- Grain interest and desirable aged patina
- Bearing the original plate from the exhibition of 1924
- Inscribed with the two countries flags and 'British Empire Exhibition 1924. Chinese Restaurant'
- Inset marble to traditionally shaped top
- Swagged frieze with broad lozenge decoration
- Raised on shaped legs and outswept feet
- United by lower galleried tier displaying typical geometric detail

The British Empire Exhibition was opened on St George's Day, 23 April 1924, by King Edward V and Queen Mary at the Empire Stadium, London. Running for 6 months in 1924 and again in 1925 it set out to showcase and explore trading opportunities.

This showpiece exhibit displaying quality craftsmanship, solid joints and construction.

Would make a fabulous lamp table or stand. Delivered waxed, polished and ready for the home.

+44 (0) 207 1833 511

Search London Fine for #10.1811, or scan the QR code for more photos and details

London Fine Ltd
 The Antique Village
 The Old Whiteways Cider Factory
 Hele, Devon, EX5 4PW

sales@londonfine.co.uk

E. & O. E.