

Antique Elbow Chair, Rosewood, English Open Armchair, Maple & Co. Circa 1910

DESCRIPTION

Our Stock # 18.5014

This is an antique elbow chair in rosewood, an English open armchair by Maple & Co. dating to the Edwardian period c.1910.

- A superior chair from Maple & Co. London, England
- Shield back, open armchair design in a quality rosewood
- Classical overtones in the holly inlay motifs and stringing
- Good colour throughout with grain interest
- Traditionally stuffed and professionally upholstered to a high standard
- Finished in a quality striped cloth with matching brocade trim
- Scrolled and shaped three quarter armrests
- Slender, serpentine seat rail
- Raised on turned and tapered front legs
- Shaped and swept rear legs
- Show back adding a flash of colour from behind

Search London Fine for #18.5014 , or scan the QR code for more photos and details

DIMENSIONS

Max Width: 56cm (22")
 Max Depth: 53.5cm (21")
 Max Height: 91.5cm (36")
 Seat Width: 46cm (18")
 Seat Depth: 46cm (18")
 Seat Height: 48.25cm (19")

